LACES! We sell more Real Laces than any other house in America. LACES!

A Most Extraordinary Sale of Real Laces.

The heart of New York fairly stood still at the accomplishment of what has been impossible excepting at Ehrich's. There are no such exquisite and elaborate Laces anywhere else in America; there are not as low prices; there is no variety so deep, and broad and distinguished as you will find here. Go where you will—investigate to your heart's content—and see how easily you will convince yourself!

We Import More Real Laces Than Many Leading Wholesale Houses.

If we could give you such an idea of the beauty and fineness and extremely attractive value these laces offer as the laces themselves will give, no further advertising would be necessary.

Sale of Real Laces at Half the Usual Prices.

The following hints give you only a brief idea of what to expect—there are hundreds of others just as attractive.

SHOT FRIEND FOR TALKING TO "GIRL"

Purtell Declares He Acted in Self-Defense and Victim Won't Prosecute.

The facts concerning a mysterious shooting affray on Tuesday evening at Tenth avenue and Twenty-fifth street, came out to-day, when William Purtell, twenty-three years of age, of Long Island City, was arrested before Magistrate Pool in the Jefferson Market Court.

Patrolman Lenehan charged Purtell with carrying a revolver without a permit, and also discharging the weapon in the public street. He said that Purtell, who is a junkman, had shot James Sullivan, a driver, of No. 400 West street, who was in court, had been shot twice in the back and once in the side, but refused to prosecute the junkman.

He explained he had been wounded in an argument with a friend, and as he had been relieved of the loaded pallets by a surgeon at the Roosevelt Hospital, he had used the "gun" in self-defense.
Purtell said Sullivan had threatened to kill him on sight, and that he had used the "gun" in self-defense.

GIRL WAS CAUGHT
WITH THE GOODS ON

Wore Stolen Green Silk Waist and Picture Hat When Arrested.

It was Dec. 28 when Mrs. Eugene Schoben, 444 of an architect living at No. 445 East One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street, hired Anna Schoben at an employment agency in the Bronx.
Anna provided over the kitchen range and pantries in the Schoben home three days and then disappeared. A large quantity of Mrs. Schoben's wardrobe to the value of $15 likewise disappeared.
Mrs. Schoben told Capt. Price, who was Detective Connolly out, he found Anna, the missing, in a room at No.
4 Avenue C, and had her in the Morrisville Police Court to-day. Mrs.
Schoben was telling Magistrate Stewart about it.

"Yes, Your Honor," she said, "I lost a green silk bodice that buttoned in the back, and had red lace on it, and a blue picture hat with white netting. I believe that girl is wearing my green waist and my picture hat this very minute!" And so she was. Anna, caught with the goods on, admitted the waist and the hat, but professed ignorance regarding the whereabouts of the other things.

The Magistrate held her for trial in General Sessions at the Court's attention, and gave the picture hat and the green silk waist in the patrol wagon.

STOKES TO BE AT UNVEILING.
PHILADELPHIA, N. J., Jan. 31.— Mayor Fish of this place has received word from Gov. Stokes that he will be present on May 13 to take part in the unveiling of the Soldiers and Sailors Monument, which is situated on the field. The monument was erected by money raised by popular subscription throughout Warren County.
